Are you passionate about making a lasting difference in the lives of single adults experiencing homelessness? Do you want to play a key role in supporting and shaping the strategic direction of a charity that works on the front line, in the London Borough of Newham?

Since 2013, NEWway Project has been working alongside churches, local volunteers, and specialist agencies to provide winter night shelter, year-round advocacy, and practical daytime support for people sleeping rough in Newham. As proud holders of the Housing Justice 'Excellence Practice Standard' Quality Mark, we are committed to restoring dignity and hope for those affected by homelessness.

Your Role as a Trustee:

As a Trustee, you'll help ensure our charity is well-governed, financially sound, and mission-focused. You'll work collaboratively with other Board members and support our senior leadership team to grow our impact, uphold our values, and develop strategic plans that reflect our purpose.

You'll bring wisdom, accountability, and encouragement to an a charity that:

- Champions purposeful living through training, employment, fun, and volunteering opportunities
- Cultivates belonging by offering welcoming spaces with onsite advice and support, working closely with other expert partners.
- Provides safety by providing winter night shelters in collaboration with local churches, as well as hosting and lodging schemes within our local community.

Time Commitment:

The Board meets three times a year (February, June, and October). Trustees are also encouraged to engage between meetings as needed, depending on their availability and interests.

Who We're Looking For:

We welcome applications from individuals of all backgrounds, particularly those with experience in: Charity governance, Housing and homelessness, Finance, fundraising, or legal expertise, Community development, Church or faith-based initiatives.
